By Clem Albers

Word From Kidnapers

This was how radio station KPFA in Berkeley looked at 10 a.m. yesterday. Sixty-three reporters and cameramen had crowded into a 12-by-12 foot studio to listen to the communication from the Symbionese Liberation Army about the kidnaping of Patricia Hearst. The station's news director, Paul Fischer, read the SLA's long statement as television cameras whirred. A tape recording of Miss Hearst's voice was also played. Story on Page 4.